

UPDATE

MONTH: November, 2019

VOLUME: 2; NUMBER: 12

AMENDMENT IN FTP ON ACCOUNT OF NCLT

The Foreign Trade Policy, 2015-20, is amended.

Para no. 2.15 A is added in Chapter 2 of Foreign Trade Policy 2015-20 as under:

Any firm / company coming under the adjudication proceedings before the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) shall inform the concerned Regional Authority (RA) and NCLT of any outstanding export obligations/liabilities under any of the schemes under FTP. The total outstanding duty saved amount / dues along with interest, and any penalty imposed under FTD&R Act, or any other dues, shall be counted as part of the dues to the government against the said firm / company.

(Notification No.25/2015-2020 New Delhi, Dated, 18 October 2019).

Para no. 2.29A is added in Handbook of Procedure 2015-20 as under:

Any firm / company coming under the NCLT proceedings shall make a summary of statement of outstanding export obligations/liabilities under the FTP schemes, indicating duty saved amounts and applicable interest till the date of start of proceedings before the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT), any penalty imposed under FTD&R Act, any other dues such as fee etc., and submit the same to the RA concerned and to NCLT, before the start of NCLT proceedings as part of the statutory filings.

The statement of consumption of inputs/procurement of capital goods, attested by chartered engineer/chartered accountant, shall also be submitted along with other documentary details of any partial fulfillment of Export Obligation claimed towards offsetting the duty saved amount.

(Public Notice No. 39/2015-20 Dated 18.October 2019).
